2. At the Senior Staff Meeting this morning General Carter emphasized that he wanted all Deputies and Office Heads to concentrate on and pay particular attention to our budgets for Fiscal Year 1965.

3. Mr. Kirkpatrick and I attended an hour's briefing today which Matt Baird gave for Mr. McCone. I think that it went quite well. Mr. McCone was surprised, however, to learn that our training policy was permissive rather than mandatory and asked Kirk to look into this. He also wanted Matt to improve his presentation for the [REDACTED] to show how our counter-insurgency curricula relates to other schools, courses, and programs throughout the Government.

4. I talked to [REDACTED] about the NRO security paper which we submitted to General Carter and briefed him on a few days ago. Ernie said that General Carter still has the paper but just hasn't had time to get at it.

6. [REDACTED] was in to talk to me about the possibility of hiring a friend of his, [REDACTED] who is now at the National Security Agency as a grade GS-14. I told H. G. that, in view of [REDACTED]'s age, grade, and limited formal education, I did not believe that I could bring him into the Administration Career Service and suggested that, if he had any place in the Agency it probably was in the Office of the Comptroller.
